

AAC Awareness Month

Come join us on October 9th for a very special event.

Carden Traditional School is hosting a Literacy Day.

We will be partnering up with people who use augmentative communication technology to talk. We will learn about the technology and then read stories together.

3:00-6:00

Refreshments will be provided.

Earn your community service hours. Take part in this event which will also be celebrated all over the country. Please sign up with your teacher today!
